

I'll Say

We always have them—the most beautiful

Wall Papers in Town

Dainty silk stripes, with cut-out borders and panel decorations, for the bedroom; parlor papers in conventional designs of gold; fruit and foliage designs for the dining room, besides others equally appropriate for the livingroom, library and hall, from the cheapest that's good to the best that's made.

STRICTLY NEW GOODS, at prices from 10 cents up. Drop in at your convenience and inspect our line of papers.

B.W. Hooker & Co.

UNDERTAKERS—BEST UP-TO-DATE MOTOR AMBULANCE SERVICE
City rates same as horse-driven ambulance; distance calls at reasonable terms.

When Man Shaves Every Day

Most men do shave every day because of the commercial value of a clean shaven face. It takes good shaving supplies to accomplish good results. Buy your shaving supplies here. Razors, blades, strops, strops, soaps, brushes, mugs and mirrors.

Drown's Drug Store

48 North Main Street

Our Fishmen Are Here With the Goods

Haddock, whole, lb only 15c
Haddock, sliced and boned, per lb. 20c
Rock Cod and Cusk, per lb. 15c to 20c
Fresh Salmon, lb. 35c
Extra fancy lot of HALIBUT, lb. 40c to 45c
Fresh Mackerel, lb. 40c
Plenty of Finnan Haddies, per lb. 15c
Clams for stews, per pint, 25c; Clams, per peck 75c
Oysters, per pint, 40c; Lobsters, per lb. 55c
All kinds of Salt Fish—Salt Cod Bits, per lb. 20c
No. 1 Baldwin Apples, 75c per barrel; No. 2 Baldwin, $6.25 per barrel
Tolman Sweets and Quince, limited amount.
Are you taking advantage of our low price on BEEF this week?
Shoulder Clods, 4 to 8-lb. pieces, only, per lb. 20c
Sticking Pieces, per lb., 18c; Good Chuck Beef, whole, per lb. 20c
3 quarts of Cranberries for 25c

The Smith & Cumings Co., Inc.

ONLY MEDICINE MADE FROM FRUIT

Extraordinary Success which "Fruit-a-lives" Has Achieved

One reason why "Fruit-a-lives" is so extraordinarily successful in giving relief to those suffering with Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Chronic Headaches, Neuralgia, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Eczema and other Skin Affections, is, because it is the only medicine in the world made from fruit juices.

These "Fruit Liver Tablets" are composed of the medicinal principles found in apples, oranges, figs and prunes, together with the nerve tonics and antiseptics.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from FRUIT-A-LIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N. Y.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Don't miss Shea's big shoe sale. Auction sale, City Auction Market, Saturday. See adv.—adv.

Red Cross is not a responsibility—it's an opportunity. Join.

See D. J. Morse's line of silk and wool dresses at Montpelier.

Notice—The public health station at the city hall will be closed for the next two weeks.

Just received, American, Swiss, Japanese and German harmonicas. Landers' Cigar Store.

The water rent is now past due and your bills are subject to a 10 per cent increase if not paid on time.

Trucking Done—Anyone wanting light or heavy trucking done, call the Granite City Bottling Works.—adv.

Largest line of new and second-hand mugs and heaters in Barre at lowest prices. E. A. Prindle, Worthen block.

The Goddard seminary football team will conclude its season with the Dartmouth reserves in the near future but has one other game to play in the meantime and that will be with the University of Vermont. Game Tuesday afternoon on the Goddard gridiron. The game was cancelled with the media a number of days ago for reasons advanced by the rival aggregation.

The game on armistice day is looked forward to by football fans to be one of the best games of the season to be staged in Barre. Goddard is being put through severe drilling for the occasion. The weather not permitting outdoor practice, the Goddard boys are being sent through hard drills in signaling in the seminary gymnasium.

Wood has already concluded his part in the rugby role for the season but is trying to get in shape to appear in the red and white uniform during the basketball season. It is talked strongly among the athletic enthusiasts of the school that there will be at least four teams of basketball at the school this year, as there is a lot of basketball material, consisting of veteran players and several green athletes have announced their intentions of going out for the gymnasium game. It is thought that each of the classes will be represented by a team.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Shea buys another big stock of shoes at low prices. Read adv.

Loren Hatchelder of Valley City, N. D., is passing a week or two with his niece, Mrs. W. L. Stowe of Walnut street.

How can you be without a Boston bag for school books, for shopping or to carry your money? $3.25 and up at Landers' Cigar Store.

Hamilton Douglas, formerly of this city, who is employed at the Fore River shipyards in Quincy, Mass., is visiting with friends in Barre.

The guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Mrs. Carter, 14 Sheridan street, this (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Auction sale of the property of the late William Farrand of Plainfield village, Friday, Nov. 14, at 1 p. m. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

Perfect fit is the secret of style and service. You can have it in an all pure wool overcoat at $37, made to your measure. F. A. Hutchinson, over Ladd's store.

Orreste Boffino returned yesterday from New York City, where for the past few days he has been on a business trip in the interest of the Union Clothing company.

The Jolly Ten circle will hold a poverty social at the Baptist church Friday evening, Nov. 7, at 7:30. A prize of two pounds of sugar is offered for the most ragged costume worn. Prizes will be awarded for silk dresses and jewelry. Apple pie and ice cream will be on sale.—adv.

Regular meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America Friday, Nov. 7, at 7 p. m. There will be adoption of a class of several candidates. State Deputy Baldwin will be with us, also the Northfield forester team and officers to exemplify the floor work. Members are expected to turn out in numbers.

A farewell reception to Rev. J. B. Reardon and family will be given at the Universalist church this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, and all the members of the church and friends of the Reardon family are cordially invited to attend. There will be a program, including selections by an orchestra and vocal numbers.

The inclement weather and bad walking did not keep many from attending the chicken-pie supper at the Congregational church last night, over 200 sitting down to the tables and enjoying the good things served. The supper was the culminating event of the two-day fair which the women's association held this week, which was generously patronized.

The body of Charles McMillan arrived from Monrovia, Cal., early this morning, accompanied by Mrs. McMillan and two daughters, Glenora and Virginia, and Mrs. Arthur Young, the latter having met her sister and two children in Montreal yesterday. Mrs. McMillan and children are, for the present, making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young and are undecided as to their stay in Barre. The remains were taken to the B. W. Hooker & Co. chapel to await the funeral, which will be held from the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Post-Express has the following to say about Marion Keeler, Vermont's remarkable young coloratura soprano, who will sing at the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 11: "Miss Keeler, who is 15 years old, a musical prodigy, delighted her hearers with a group of songs, including several grand opera numbers and popular ballads, including several Scotch ones, in which she was particularly good. Miss Keeler possesses a wonderful natural coloratura soprano voice as clear as a bell, and she sings with perfect ease. All who have heard her predict a wonderful future for her and she has all the requisites to become a great artist, as well as youth and beauty."

Appearance of Miss Keeler are 50c and 60c on sale at the box office Saturday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2:30.—adv.

The regular meeting of Cobble Hill grange was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 4. A large number of members were present. The first and second degrees were conferred on six candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, with encore, Lucy Cummings; reading, Florence Nye; paper, "A Protest Against the Present Style of Dress," Mrs. A. L. Smith; piano solo, with encore, Earle Winter. The attendance contest is growing more exciting. All members try to be at roll call Nov. 18. If the pink is ahead, the gray won't be, so help your captain win out. Visitors always welcome.